Trucks, Planes, and Trains

This is a truck.

It carries cement for a new building.

This is a plane.

It takes people to many different places.

This is a helicopter.

It takes a sick child to the hospital.

This is a school bus.

It takes the children to school.

This is a boat.

It takes people waterskiing.

This is a train.

It takes people or supplies all over the country.

Should I go by boat, bus, truck,
plane, helicopter, or train?

I think I'll just ride my bike!

► Let's take a trip together!

Where are we going today?

We are taking our helicopter to the cottage.

At the cottage, we fly to a little beach and meet some new friends.

We spent the

with our new friends.

“Hi, my name is Jessica”

‘Hello, my name is Holly”

‘Nice to meet you.
May I borrow your bucket please?’

“Yes, you can borrow it! Nice to meet you too.”

‘Thank you for playing with us.
We are having so much fun!’

‘You are welcome! Let’s go swimming!’

‘That’s a great idea!
I like swimming!’

“It is time to go home!
Let’s go back to the helicopter.”

‘Yes, it is late! I am getting hungry!’

'I had a great day.
See you later.'

'Me too! I had a lot of fun!
Good bye!'
