

Welcome to the Animal Kingdom! This is Lesson 8!

Students will:

- Learn to use sounds (th) in speech and sentences.
- Identify the subject, verb and object in a sentence.

Party Chicken

I'm a party chicken, party chicken, Cluck! Cluck! Cluck!

I can sing like a swan.

I can dance like a duck.

I can boogie like a pigeon
When I wiggle all about.

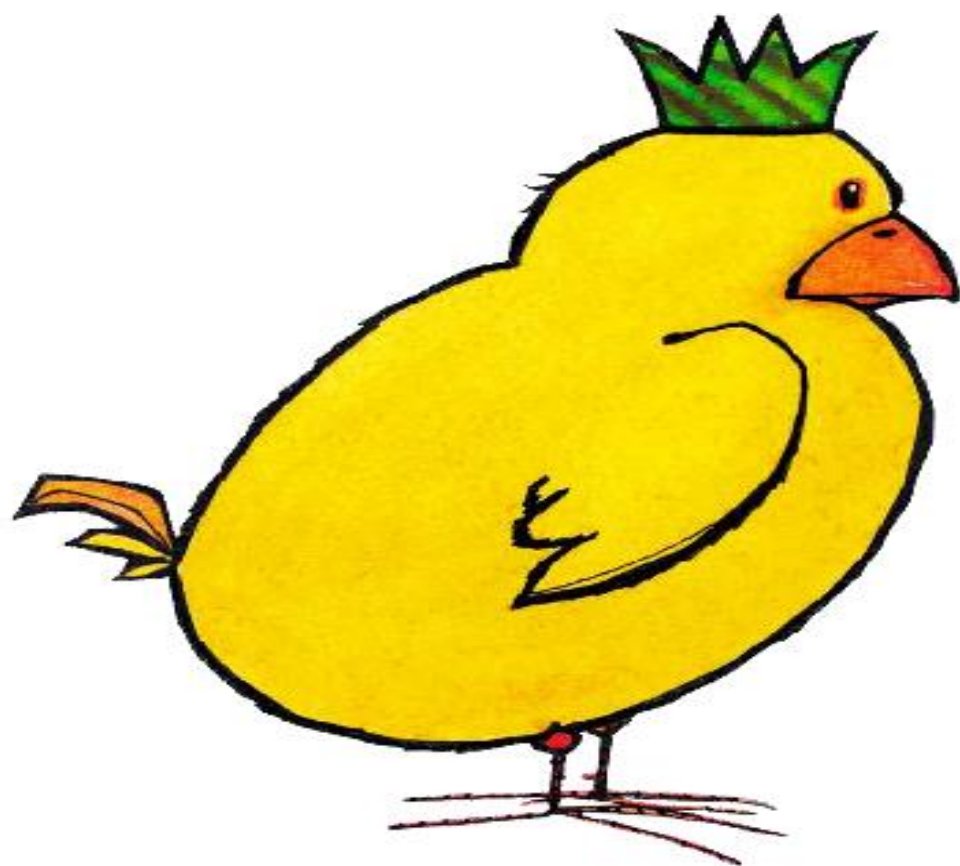

And I gobble like a turkey
When the food comes out!

Print

Lets read a story

The Little Yellow Chicken

Story by Joy Cowley

Illustrations by Elizabeth Fuller

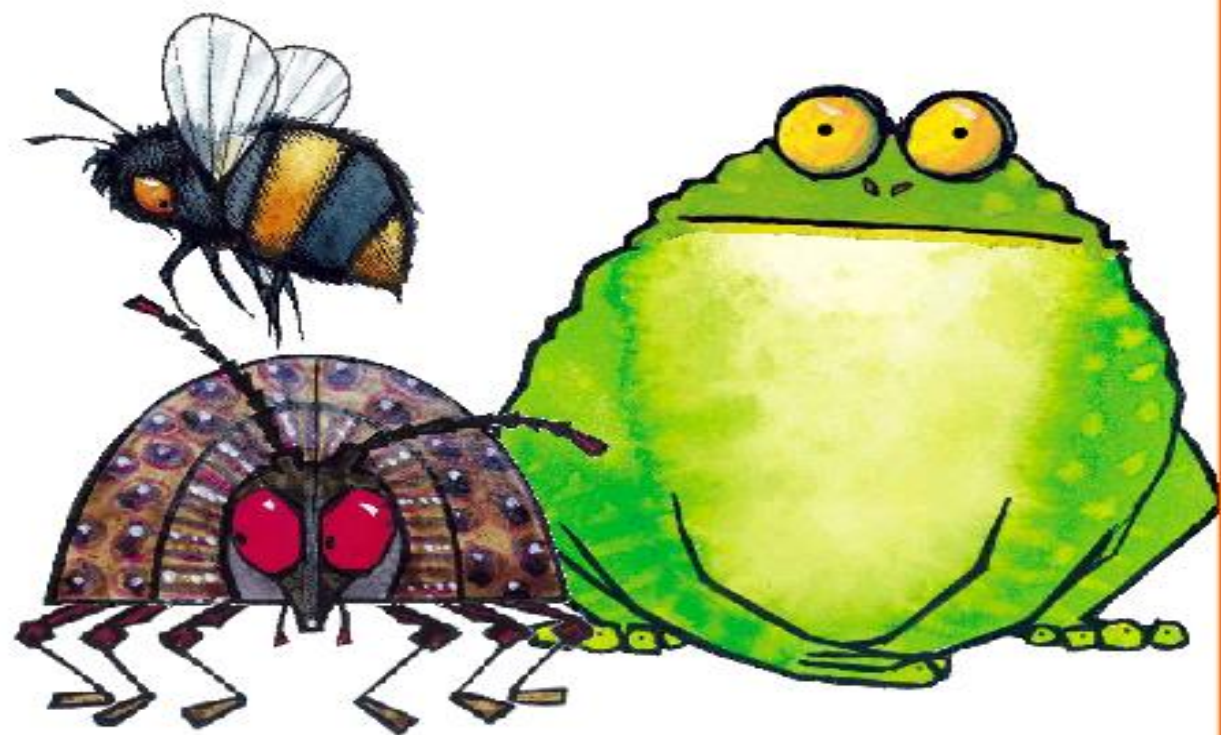

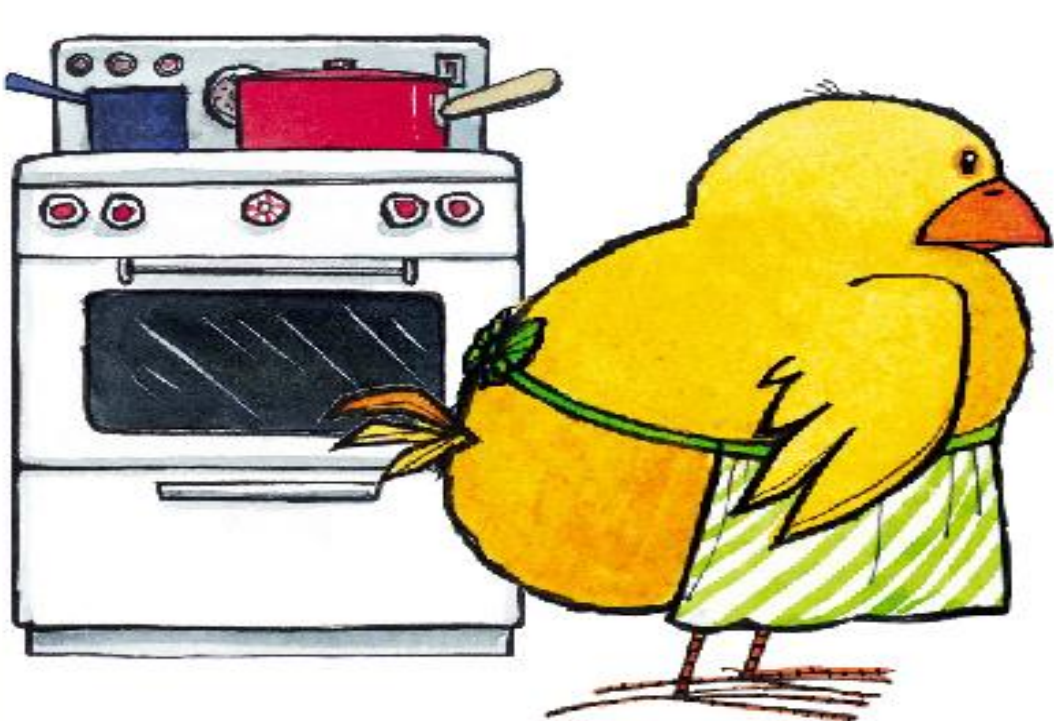

“Hop it!” said the frog.

“Buzz off!” said the bee.

And the big brown beetle said,
“Stop bugging me!”

So the little yellow chicken
did the shopping by himself.

When the shopping was done,
the little yellow chicken said to
his friends, "Will you help me
do the cooking?"

His friends shook their heads.

Back

Next

“Hop it!” said the frog.

“Buzz off!” said the bee.

And the big brown beetle said,
“Stop bugging me!”

So the little yellow chicken
did the cooking by himself.

Back

Next

When the cooking was done,
the little yellow chicken said to
his friends, “Will you help me
set the table?”

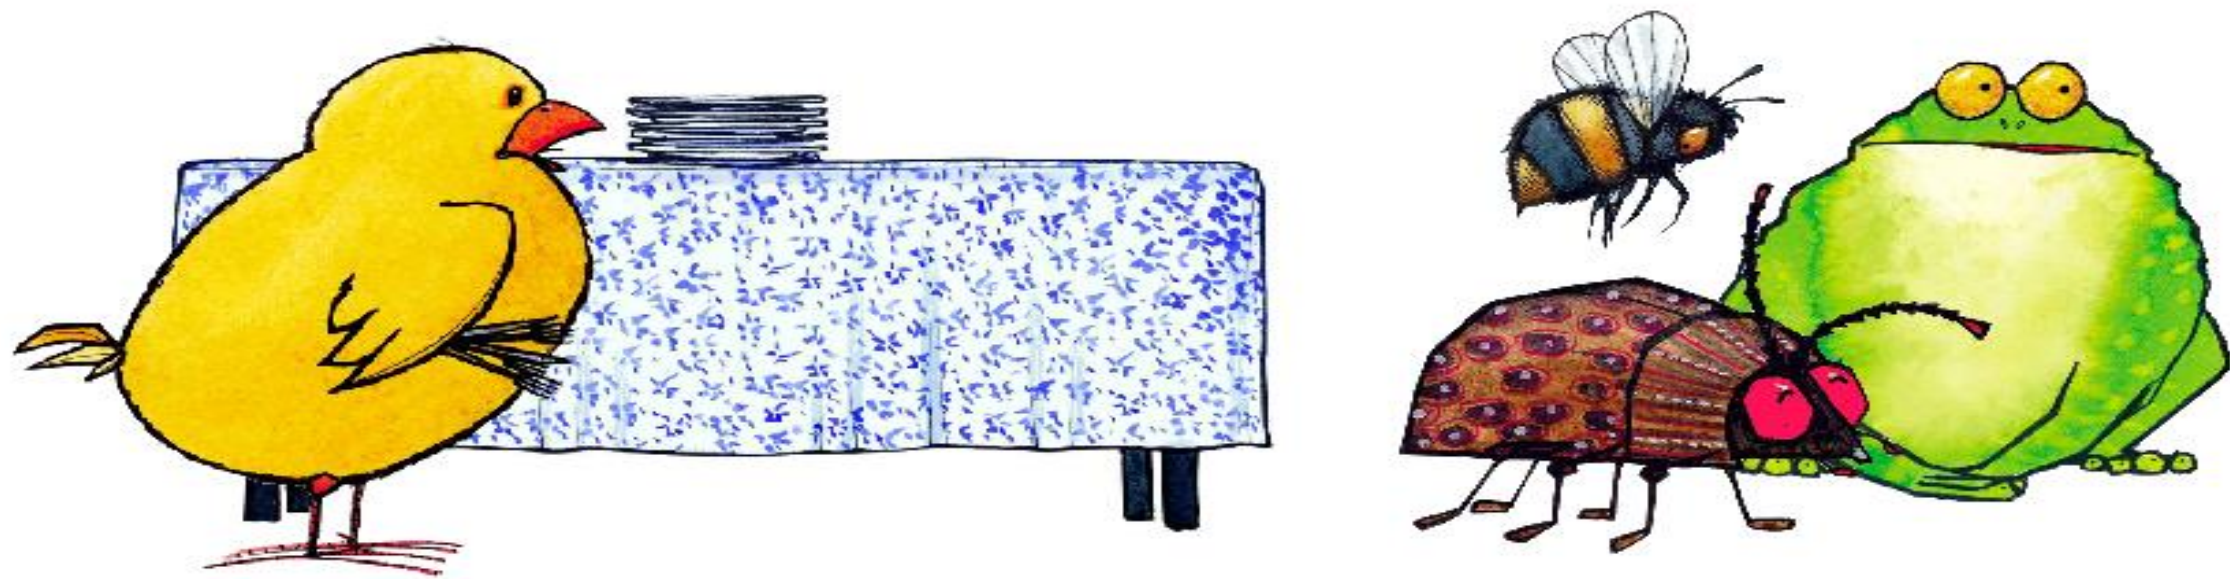

His friends turned their backs.

Back

Next

“Hop it!” said the frog.

“Buzz off!” said the bee.

And the big brown beetle said,
“Stop bugging me!”

So the little yellow chicken
set the table by himself.

Back

Next

Everything was ready for the party.
The food smelled delicious.
The friends knocked on the little yellow chicken's door.

Back

Next

“I’m hungry!” said the frog.

“I’m starving!” said the bee.

And the big brown beetle said,
“What about me?”

Back

Next

The little yellow chicken phoned his grandmother, the little red hen.

“My friends wouldn’t help me,”
he said. “Now they want to come to my party. What shall I do?”

“Don’t let them in,” said the little red hen. “Eat all the food yourself.”

Back

Next

But the little yellow chicken was a kind little chicken. He thought and thought.

Back

Next

Then he opened the door.

“Welcome to my party!” he said
to his friends.

Back

Next

“Fantastic!” said the frog.

“Amazing!” said the bee.

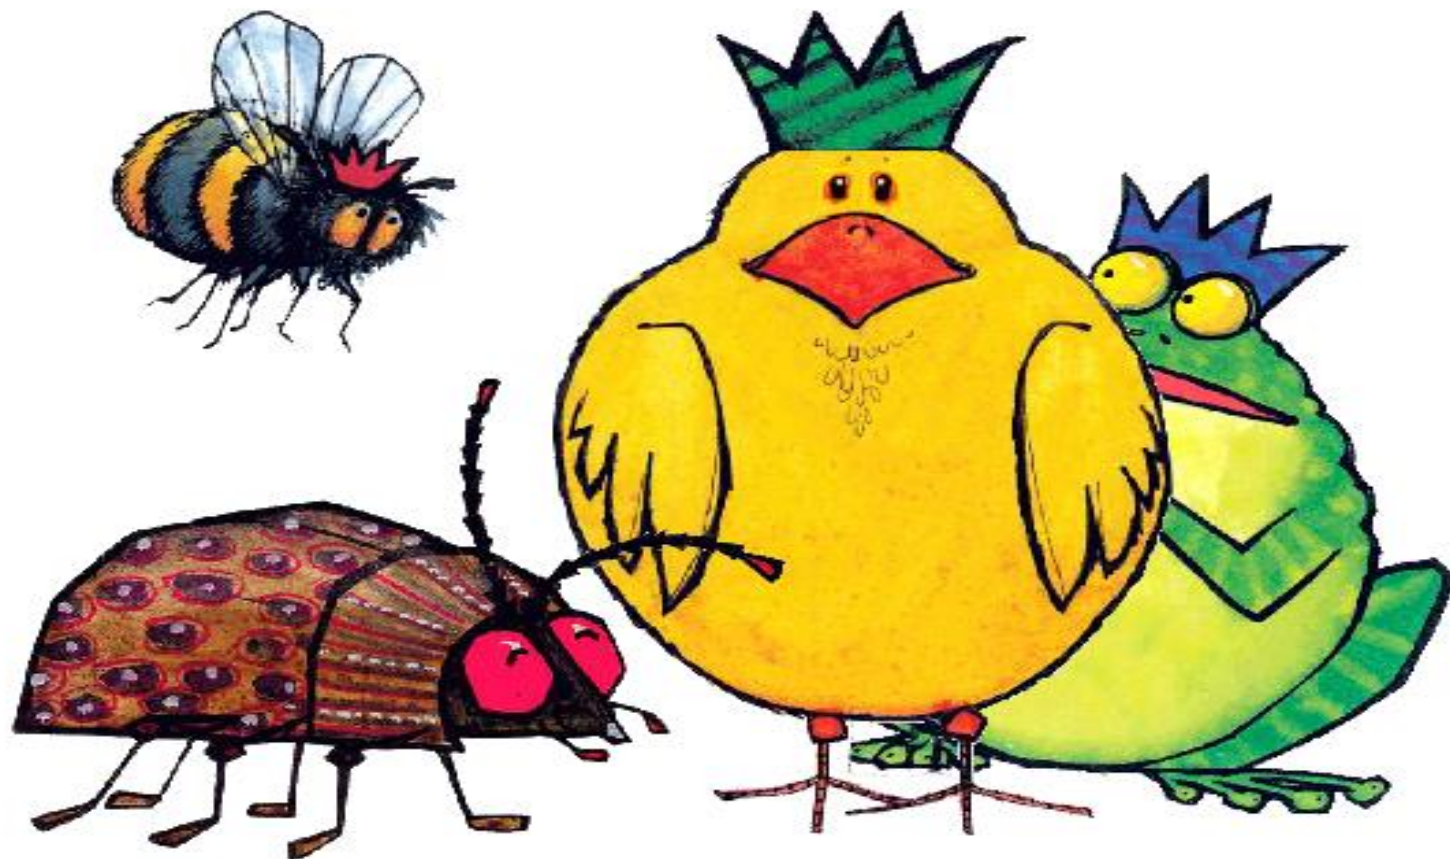

And the big brown beetle said,
“A scrumptious tea!”

Back

Next

Then they said to the little yellow chicken, “We’re sorry we were lazy. The next time you have a party, we’ll do all the work.”

Back

Next

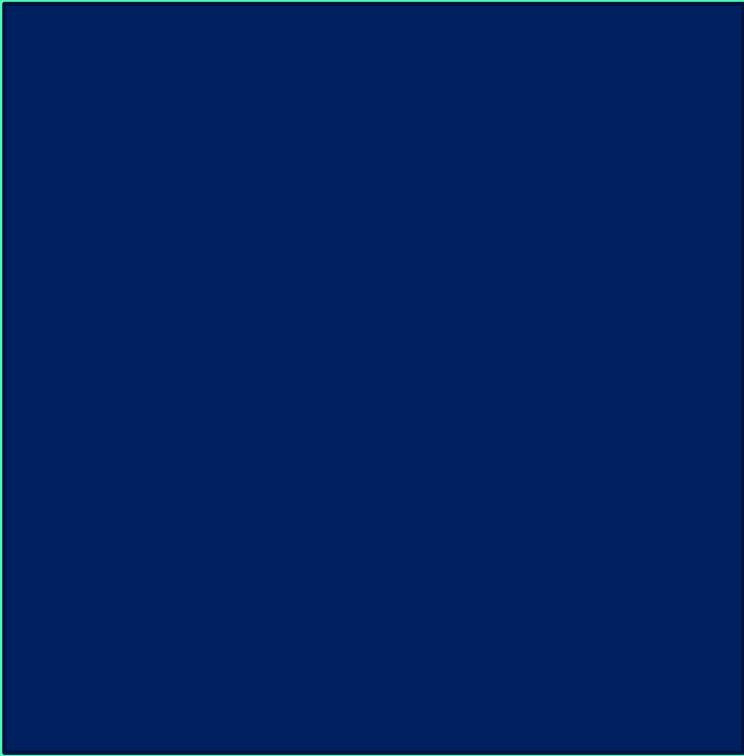

“That’s a good idea,”
said the little yellow chicken.

LEARNING OUR WORDS!

Draw a picture and write a definition of the 'th' words.

think

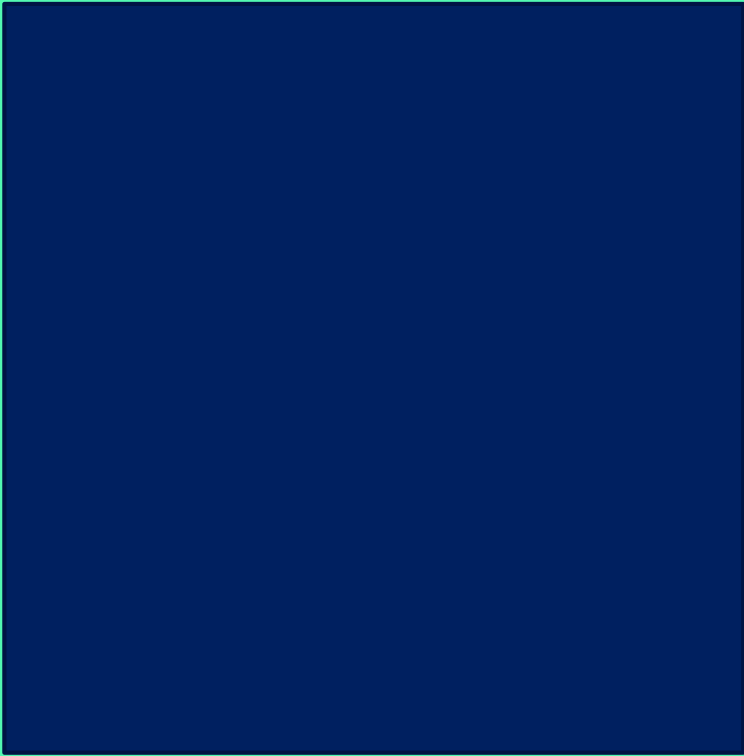

thumb

thick

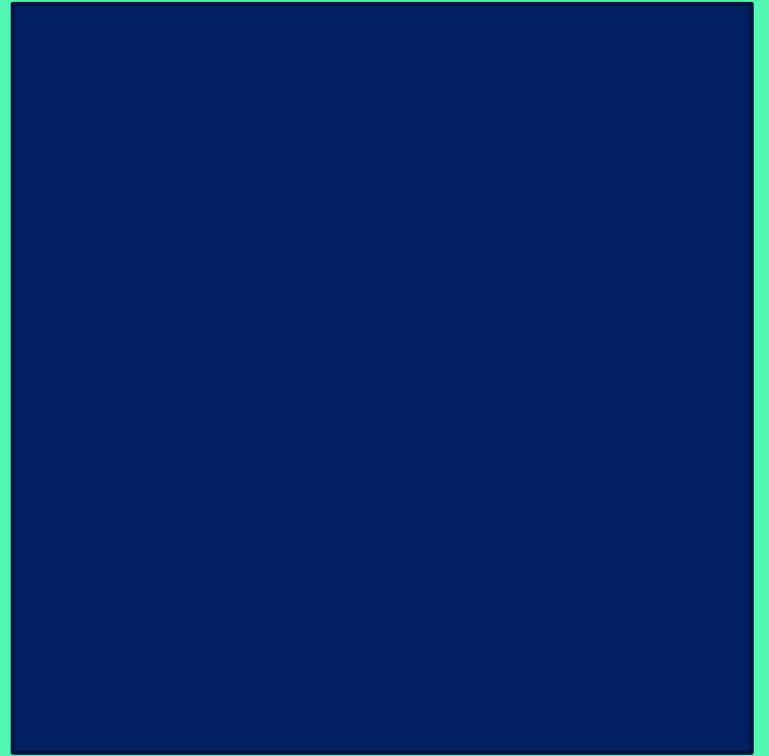

Draw a picture and write a definition of the 'th' words.

teeth

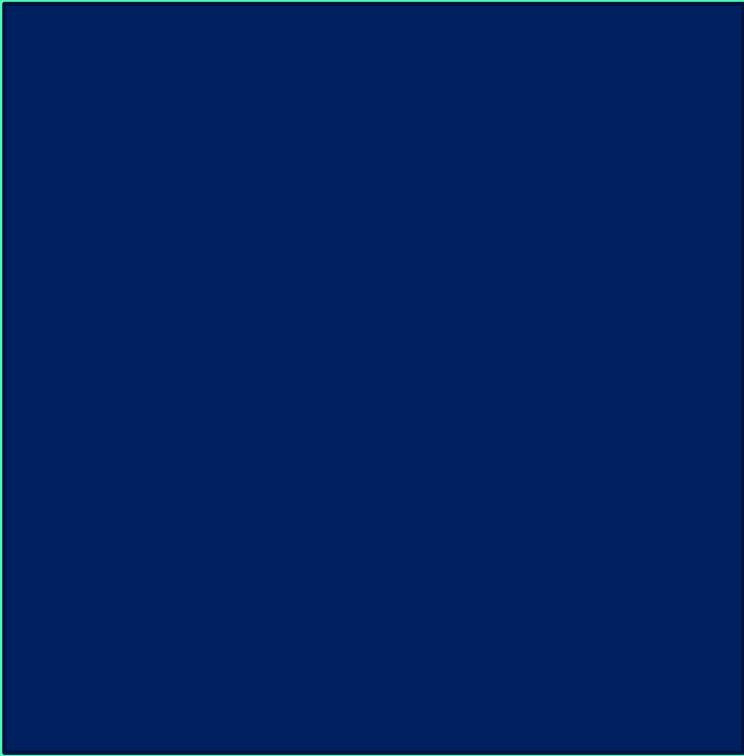

bath

south

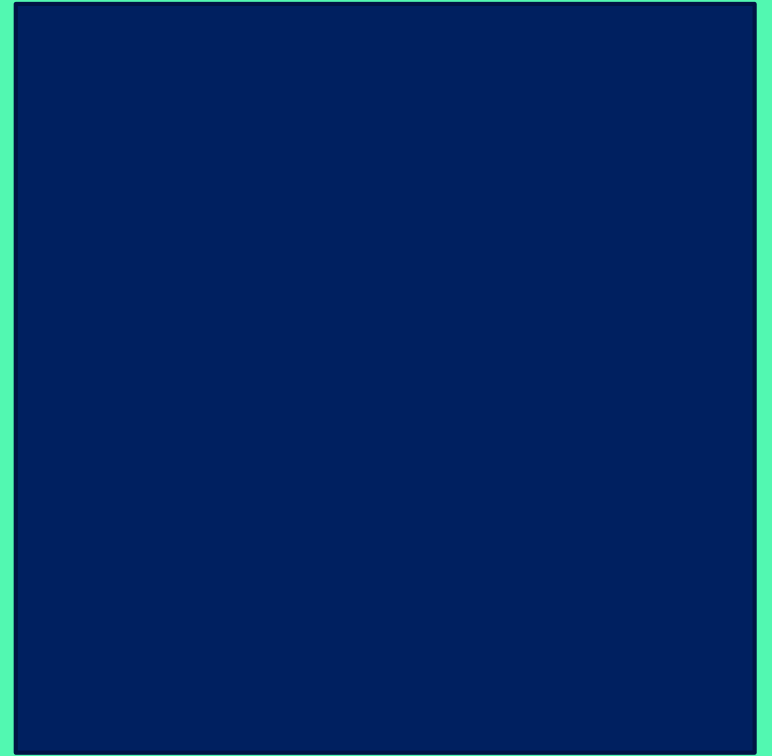

Draw a picture and write a definition of the 'th' words.

thistle

path

mouth

Homework

Write a description about a party you have attended and complete the activities about the description.

Write interesting sentences using 'th' words.

Final Thoughts

- Do you have any questions?