

Keeping In Shape

Unit 6: Lesson 12

What are we learning this class?

- This class will be a review of lessons 9, 10, and 11
- “Ay”, “Ew” and “Ou” sounds
- Sentence structure and thank you letters

Review: What sound does “ay” make?

“ew”?

“oa”?

Which sound
does each picture belong to?

Good! Use the correct word to fill in the blank below

I planted a vegetable in the garden that _____ tall.

My dad says to _____ outside for
at least an hour each day.

My mom made a healthy _____
for dinner.

I used the toaster to make _____ for a healthy breakfast.

Nice work! Can you guess each word by looking at the picture?

Now we will play 20 Questions
again.

This will test your knowledge of all three sounds!
“ay”, “ew”, “oa”

Have your classmate guess what word you are thinking of by only asking “yes” or “no” questions.
Example: Is it an “ew” word?

Nice work! Now we will put all of our knowledge together
to create sentences.

Fill in the blanks. Sentences:

- Begin with a _____
- End with _____
- Involve a subject, _____,
and an object.

Write a sentence using the words:

Create a sentence that will help keep us in shape.

Coat

Hay

Write a sentence using the words:

Play

Stew

Create a sentence that will help keep us in shape.

Let's now read a book. Listen for the reason why we should say thank you.

We need to have good manners,
show kindness
and respect, because when
we're rude to others,
very soon
we're all upset!

Good manners
are important.
They make us nice,
you see.
And if we're really nice,
the world's
a better place
to be.

So it's time
for us to learn the best way
to be polite.

What should we do?

Come on,
let's try together,
then we're sure
to get it right!

Let's learn
good manners.

First let's smile
and be friendly,
and let's help
each other out.
Being kind
and caring –
that's what manners
are about!

Now let's learn
the magic words.

Here they are
from one to four.

If we say them,
we're polite –
so let's use them
more and more!

Please,
Mum!

Let's start
by saying
"please".
We should practise
every day.

Mmm!
Yes,
please.

Would you like a drink?

Yes,
please.

Please, can you help me?

Whenever
we ask for things,
"please" is what we need to say.

A biscuit, please!

The next words to remember are very important, too.
For anything we're given, we must always say "thank you".

Wow!
Thank you.

This is for you.

Remember
the magic words.
Start with “please,”
then say “thank you.”

And
don't forget “excuse me”—
it's bad manners
if we do.

Why should we say
thank you?

Correct! It is kind to say thank you. Let's now practice writing our thank you letters.

What should we include in our letter?

- 1) _____ we are sending the letter to
- 2) _____ we are sending the letter
- 3) _____ we are thanking for
- 4) A _____ sentence
- 5) A _____ sentence

Dear _____,

Thank you for the _____

I really like it, and it was very nice
of you to think of me.

Thanks for making me feel special!

Yours truly, _____

Great work! Now we will practice writing our own thank you letters again.

Write a thank you letter to your teacher for helping you to keep in shape!

Share your letters with your classmates? Did everyone include the 5 main parts of a thank you letter?

Review!

- Three sounds
“Ay”, “Ew”, “Oa”
- Writing a personal thank you note
