

MLA STYLE

(Modern Language Association)

When do I use MLA?

□ When you are citing a source in...

- Art History
- Classics
- English
- History (Ask your teacher if they have a preference: MLA or APA)
- Modern Languages
- Music
- Philosophy
- Religion
- Theatre

MLA Style citations focus on names (author(s)) and pages numbers.

In-Text Citations.

- How do I cite a source in my writing (in-text)?

When using MLA format, follow the author-page method of in-text citation.

Author

Page #

For Example:

“In order to maintain academic honesty in your writing, it is important to cite your sources using proper MLA style” (Moore 3).

What should I do when the author has already been referenced?

Moore says that “In order to maintain academic honesty in your writing, it is important to cite your sources using proper MLA style” (13).
