

Types of Magic

Rosedale Academy

ESLBO

What will I learn today?

- Types of magic
- Open and Closed questions
- The sound “gr”

When we last left Mike

Mrs. Clinton had just made a list of performers of magic.

... and now the story continues.

The Next day, the students presented their findings to the class.

“Thank you to all the students who presented their projects on wizards, witches, fairies and more,” Mrs. Clinton told the class.

“Let’s watch this video on the different types of magic,” Mrs. Clinton said.

Mike was interested to see which types of magic Wally the Wizard used.

TYPES OF MAGIC

What will I learn today?

- Types of magic
- Open and Closed questions
- The sound “gr”

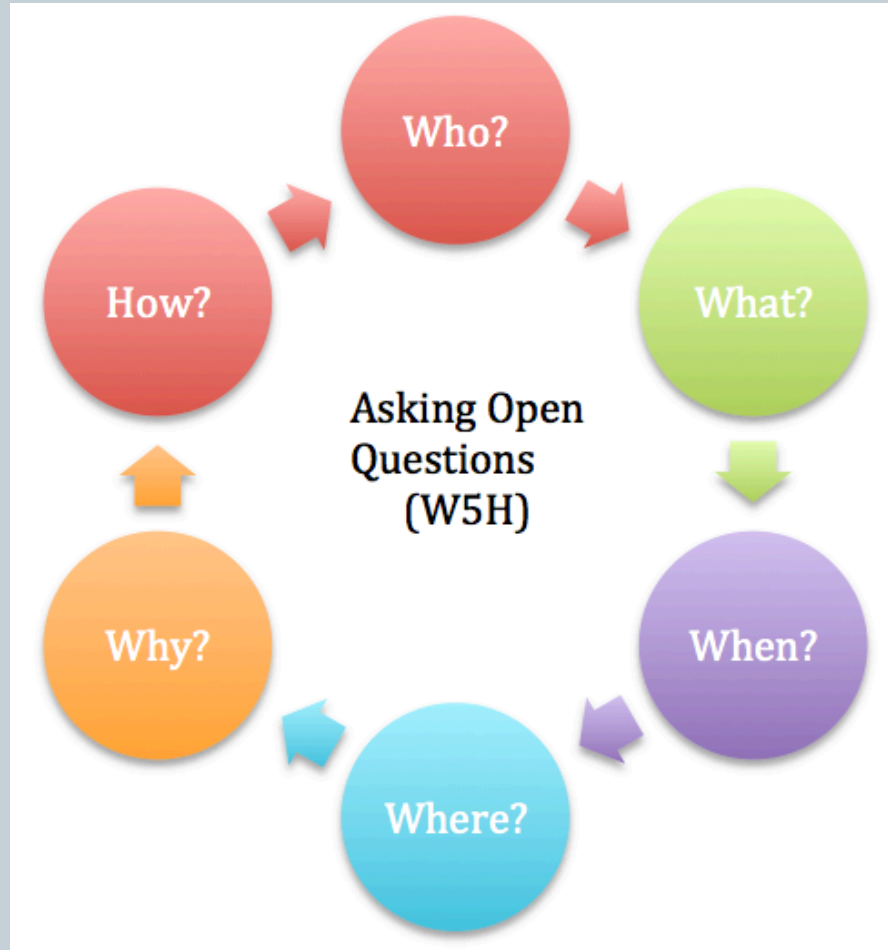

“Now that we know all about who performs magic and what types of magic they perform, we can dig deeper into our learning,” said Mrs. Clinton excitedly.

“We’re now going to learn all about interviewing people,”
Mrs. Clinton explained

Asking Questions

C

Asking Yes/No Questions

- Did Mike go to a magic show?
- Does Mike get surprised by his parents?
- Are Penn and Teller good at performance magic?
- Am I a good wizard?
- Can a witch cast spells on people?
- Is a witchdoctor helpful?
- ...

And Now ...

“That Sounds Great!”

Brought to you today by the letters:

gr...

The grizzly bear says, “grrr!”

Practice using the “gr” sound:

