

Extend Resource Package ESLCO

Unit 2 Lesson 1

Inference Riddles

- 1.I begin in the morning.
- 2.There is always a new one of me.
- 3.I am often called “Present”
- 4.Tomorrow is always after me
- 5.I end while you are sleeping.
- 6.Yesterday is always before me.

Answer: I am today!

Riddle Worksheet

Clues for Riddle:

1.	<hr/> <hr/>
2.	<hr/> <hr/>
3.	<hr/> <hr/>
4.	<hr/> <hr/>
5.	<hr/> <hr/>
6.	<hr/> <hr/>

Riddle Answer:

---

Sour Grapes

an Aesop Fable

A very hungry fox walked into a vineyard where there was an ample supply of luscious looking grapes. Grapes had never looked so good, and the fox was famished. However, the grapes hung higher than the fox could reach. He jumped and stretched and hopped and reached and jumped some more trying to get those yummy grapes, but to no avail. No matter what he tried, he could not reach the grapes. He wore himself out jumping and jumping to get the grapes.

"Those grapes surely must be sour," he said as he walked away, "I wouldn't eat them if they were served to me on a silver platter."

Reference: Sour Grapes by Aesop found @ <http://www.storyit.com/Classics/Stories/sourgrapes.htm>.

Dear Daniel,

I have been having such a wonderful time these last few days. The warm sun has been so nice compared to the weather I had back home. I have been seeing all the sights, such as the Maya temples and artifacts, and the wonderful beaches.

I hope that Snowflake is not being too much trouble. She likes to go for walks many times a day, and I know she can be a handful with all her barking.

I will be returning soon. I even have a little something for you.

Your Friend,

Sarah