The Best Birthday Gift

by Barbara Bakowski • illustrated by Jackie Stafford

Today is August 9th and it is a special day for Nana.
Nate is excited for Nana's birthday. He goes outside and gets Nana some birthday flowers!

Nana will love her birthday flowers!

'Those are nice flowers,' says Dad. 'Do not forget to put them in water!'

Nate is too busy making a birthday card for Nana. He does not hear his dad.

Nate forgets to put the flowers for Nana in water.

Now it is time to bake a birthday cake for Nana.

“Mix the cake good!” says Mom.

Oh no! Nana’s birthday cake fell on the floor!

“I did not put the flowers in water and the cake is on the floor!

What will I give Nana for her special day?” cried Nate.

“I am sorry Nana. I only have a card for you. The cake is on the floor and the flowers have no water.”

“It is okay Nate,” said Nana, “All I want is to spend time with you! That is the best gift for my special birthday!”
