

Keeping In Shape

Unit 6: Lesson 10

What sound do the letters
“E” and “W” make when they are together?

You have 1 minute. Race against your classmates and write a list of as many “ew” words as you can think of.

Nice job! That was a lot of words.

Now try to match the photo with the word.

Grew

Stew

Blew

How are these words involved in keeping us in shape?

Let's do it again. Draw a photo to match with the "ew" word.

How can these words keep us in shape?

Few

Screw

Flew

I planted a vegetable in the garden that _____ tall.

Tommy _____ bubbles outside.

My mom made a healthy _____
for dinner.

We _____ a kite in the park last night.

Which of each sentence
have you experienced?
Have you had stew
before?

Let's practice writing sentences using our "ew" words.

Remember, sentences:

- Begin with a capital
- End with punctuation
- Involve a subject, verb, and an object.

Example:
Bill kicked the ball.

Write a sentence using the words:

Stew

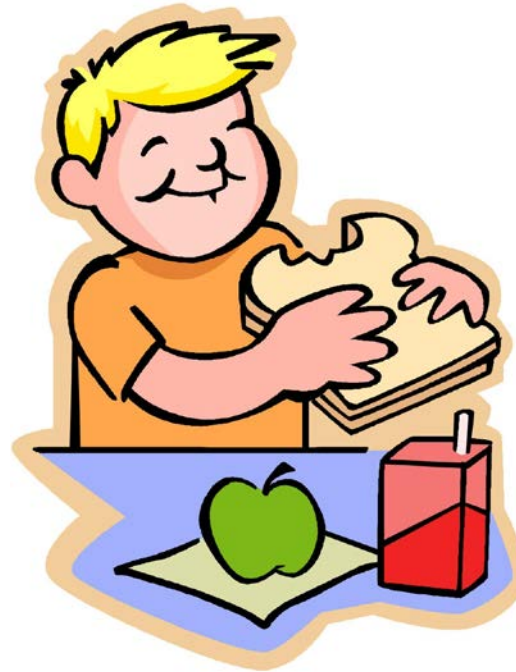

Grew

Write a sentence using the words:

Blew

Chew

Dear, Mayor Murphy 3-12-13

Thank you for making room in your time to read to us. The book you read was a wonderful book about books. Also thank you for keeping Lowell a safe place. You are doing great.

Sincerely Tory Farnping

Did you notice:
Who is being thanked?

Dear Grandma and Papa,

Thank you for the Castle Lego. It was the number one thing on my Wish List. I love it! I play with it a lot.

Love,
Billy

What similarities did you see between this letter and the last one?
Circle important lines of the letter.

Nice job! What do you think we should include in a thank you letter?

1)

Dear _____,

2)

Thank you for the _____

3)

I really like it, and it was very nice
of you to think of me.

4)

Thanks for making me feel special!

5)

Yours truly,

How can we thank people?

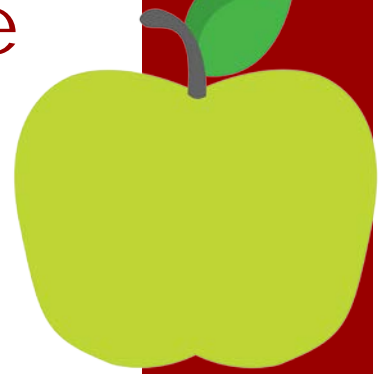

"Thank you so much"

"I appreciate your gift because..."

"You are so kind"

"It was so nice of you to..."

Let's practice writing our own thank you phrase. Pretend someone gave you a delicious and healthy meal. How would you thank them?

A large, empty rectangular box with a dark red border, intended for writing a thank you phrase. The box is positioned in the lower half of the page.

Great work! In our next class, we will put our phrases together to create our own thank you letters.

Here are some people we might thank:

Teachers

Mother

Father

Grandfather

Mail Carrier
