We learned about the sounds “Oo”, “Ow”, and “Ou”.

What does each pairing sound like?

List an example word of each sound.

“Oo”

“Ow”

“Ou”

Great work! Let's play a guessing game!

What word am I thinking of?

This is something I do to the grass on my lawn
when it is getting long.

You are right! It is mow.

How does this activity keep us in shape?

Let's do it again!

What word am I thinking of?

This is something large, white and fluffy in the sky. I watch these when I play outside.

Correct! The word is cloud.

Do you like to watch the clouds when you are outside?

One more time!

What word am I thinking of?

This is something on the earth that is tall. You can climb it, and the higher you climb the colder it gets. It is hard work to climb.

Right! The word is mountain.

Have you seen a mountain before? Would you like to climb one?

Nice Job! Now it is your turn.

Pick a photo and describe the item or activity that would keep us in shape. We will guess the “Ow”, “Oo”, or “Ou” word.

Great work. You know your “Oo”, “Ow”, and “Ou” words!

Now write your own sentence using an “Oo”, “Ow” or “Ou”
word of your choice!

Let's now review present continuous tense.

Am/Is/Are

What are the children in the picture doing? Describe using the words am, is and are.

Fill in the blanks to create a correct sentence.

She _____ playing tennis.

They _____ playing outside.

He _____ riding a bike.

Write a sentence about what you are doing right now.

Should you use am, is, or are?

Let's do it again. What is happening in this photo?

Nice work!

appropriately!

Now we will be reviewing comparative and superlative words!

Review: Use the adjective
“fast” to describe these boys.

Who is going faster? The fastest?

Let's try one more time.
Describe these using the word "healthy"

Why would these foods would keep us in shape?

Try it yourself using the word “tall”.

Draw and label a “tall”, “taller” and “tallest” person.

Write your own sentence.
Use the word strong.

Awesome job! Now let's review the phrases “Shall we...”
and “How about...”

“Shall we” and “how about”
can both be used when you are making a suggestion.

Shall we play basketball tonight?

How about you come over for dinner tonight?

Write your own sentence
using “shall we”.

Here is an example.

Shall we play volleyball or hockey tonight?

Great! Now, answer the question you just asked using “how about...”

Here is an example.
How about hockey?

Great work! Playing sports and being outside helps to keep us in shape. Let's read a poem about keeping in shape!

Dirt on My Shirt

There's dirt on my shirt
And leaves in my hair
There's mud on my boots
But I don't really care

Playing outside is so much fun
To breathe the clean air
And feel the warm sun

To stomp in a puddle
Or climb a big tree
Makes me quite happy
Just look and you'll see

Review!

- “Ow”, “Oo”, and “Ou” words
 - Describing a photo
- Comparative and Superlative
- Shall we, and how about...

Homework

Do you have any questions?

What do you think she should do?

What activities would keep her in shape?

What would you like to do?

I don't know what to do today.
Perhaps I'll go outside and play,
or stay indoors and watch TV,
or take a bath, or climb a tree.

Or maybe I'll go ride my bike,
or pick my nose, or take a hike,
or jump a rope, or scratch my head,
or play a game, or stay in bed,
or dance a jig, or pet the cat,
or drink some milk, or buy a hat,
or sing a song, or read a book,
or change my socks, or learn to cook,
or dig a hole, or eat a pear,
or call my friends, or brush my hair,
or hold my breath, or have a race,
or stand around and slap my face.

I'm so confused, and bored, and blue,
to not know what I ought to do.
I guess that I should just ask you.
So, what do you think I should do?
